“Marjorie went through boot camp at Camp Lejeune, NC. After that she was active duty in New York where she served the Marines as a Cosmetologist. Mom was a wonderful, giving person who always thought of others first. When we were children she made a lot of our clothes. She even took one of her coats and made us coats out of it. She loved doing needlework and our Christmas trees are all full of her ornaments. She also made many Afghans for the family. She donated many pies and hand made items to church so they could sell them. Mom was an encourager and even when we did things that weren't what she wanted we were treated with love and respect.”

On Saturday, the 3rd of January, 2009, the Chosin Reservoir Detachment Casket & Funeral Guard was honored to serve the Campbell Family during the Visitation for Corporal Marjorie (Miller) Campbell. The detail consisted of Marines Walter Golladay, John Tonkin and Chuck Klosterman.
